AHK Industrial Suppliers Forum 2020

Europe's largest virtual suppliers forum

New conditions on the international markets require a new orientation in regards to business and supply structures. Therefore more than every fourth company is considering a new business orientation after the experiences of the Corona pandemic, especially many German industrial companies that depend on products and services from other countries. Particularly now, this fact offers excellent opportunities for German buyers to establish new contacts with European suppliers and to create and strengthen new supply chains. The AHK Industrial Suppliers Forum 2020 offers the ideal platform for exactly this purpose.

Organized by the network of the German Chambers of Commerce abroad (AHK), this virtual event provides industry buyers with an ideal opportunity to make new business contacts. With 16 participating countries and about 180 exhibitors, this virtual suppliers trade fair is the largest of its kind in Europe.

Participating Exhibitors at the event are European industrial companies listed in the network of the attending German Chambers of Commerce abroad. Relevant certificates, export experience and other quality characteristics were herefor taken into account.

Visitors of the event can directly and easily get in touch with the exhibitors at the respective virtual exhibition stands, via video chats and direct calls as well as at the conference part of the forum to meet and find new suppliers and to create new business opportunities.

Benefit from the largest international online suppliers forum in Europe!
